This spring, the Gettysburg/Adams County community welcomes Mark Lunsford. Three years ago Mark's daughter Jessica was stolen from her bedroom in Florida, abused and killed. Since then he has worked tirelessly to change the laws that allowed a registered sex offender to take his 9 year-old daughter's childhood and her life. We are honored to have him speak to us about his story and what is being done in Adams Co. and Pennsylvania to protect our children from abuse.
