Make-ups are important!
Rob Leshner will spend a few minutes to teach us how to do a make-up on the Rotary website. He has done this himself several times so he will be speaking from personal experience.

EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Ken Farabaugh introduced our first Exchange Student, Alisa Shafar, who comes to us from Ukraine. She has spent the first 10 days in the U.S. with Ken and Connie and has now moved on to her first host family, that of President Mark and Sharon Grim. (Many thanks to them for stepping up to the plate!!) We extend a warm welcome to Alisa and look forward to seeing her at Rotary functions over the next 10 months.

Ken also mentioned that our second in-coming Exchange Student is scheduled to arrive in Gettysburg this week. We look forward to welcoming this young man from The Republic of China.

PROGRAM

If you thought you knew all about the Girl Scouts, last Monday's program would have set you straight. Jeannette Archer-Simons, CEO of the South-Central Pennsylvania Girl Scouts, an organization of approximately 45,000 Scouts and several thousand volunteers. Jeannette, who is also a Rotarian from Harrisburg, presented an energized, fast-paced overview of what Scouting is today and how it has evolved since its founding in 1912. Jeannette spoke of the challenges and opportunities of our ever-changing society and the assistance and guidance now provided by present day Girl Scout programs. It was a real eye-opener.
