

The Battlefielder

ROTARY CLUB OF GETTYSBURG, PA
Weekly Bulletin — June 18, 2007

NEXT MEETING

Monday, June 25, 2007, 12 noon at the Historic Gettysburg Hotel. This will be BJ's last meeting as president.

LAST MEETING June 18, 2007 Thanks to reporter — Rosemary Hutchison

Carey Moore led a rousing rendition of "Johnny Comes Marching Home". Everyone really sang out on the second chorus.

PROGRAM—The program presentation featured "Celebrate Gettysburg," a new Adams County magazine. Jessica Dean, Publisher and Art Editor, as well as owner, gave us an overview of the magazine. It is a community magazine that highlights business and events. It will appeal to local residents and visitors. It looks like a very upscale publication with an excellent website.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- There will be a Board meeting Friday, June 29, 2007 at 07:30.
- No meeting July 2

50/50

Yeah! for Randy Parmentier for winning the 50/50. We know he will put it to good use and have some fun --- for all of us with non-winning tickets.

HAPPY BUCKS

We are happy for all the "Happy Bucks" from all the happy Rotarians:

- Ed Luckenbaugh – introduced his bride of 47 years. Good goin' Ed.
- Fred Snyder— congratulated the Adams County Arts Council (ACAC) for the great work in bringing the Brass Band to Gettysburg. Fantastic job Chris.
- Randy Parmentier– added his congratulations to Fred's.
- Larry Defuge– happy to be home after a fabulous trip to the U.K. and Scotland.
- Hal Dunkelberger, Jr– happy to be with his father as a guest and to spend Father's Day with him.
- Curt Musselman– a happy Rotarian. Just plain happy.
- Jim Sheen– happy that B.J. taught us how to floss bear teeth. Just don't try this at home!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWEST PAUL HARRIS FELLOW

Wow! Another Paul Harris Award for one of our Rotarians. Ed Luckenbaugh received his commemorative pin and medal from President B.J. and John Kramb. Great job Ed. Great job John. We are lucky to have both of you in our club.

BJ presented the Paul Harris Fellow certificate and medal to Ed Lukenbaugh. Ed's wife Nancy shared in the presentation.
