PROGRAM

John VanMeerbeke, Gettysburg Rotary member and President of the Board of the Adams County Affiliate of Habitat for Humanity spoke about the organization in Adams County. Habitat for Humanity is a committed, all volunteer organization that has built and/or refurbished 27 homes for eligible families in Adams County.

This organization works in partnership with eligible families, community volunteers and skilled worker volunteers, area churches and community financial contributors to build or refurbish homes for eligible homeowners. The ACAC affiliate builds one to two homes per year. Each family contributes up to 500 hours of "sweat equity" in their home. The first President was Dick Waybright. The Rotary Club of Gettysburg worked on the first home, which was on Breckenridge Street.
